Changes to the Gillard Ministry

Brendan O'Connor announced as Minister for Housing and Homelessness

Prime Minister Gillard has announced changes to her Ministry today. Brendan O'Connor moves into Cabinet to take the position of Minister for Housing and Homelessness as well as Minister for Small Business.

Former NSW Premier Bob Carr will join the Senate and will take on the role of Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Further information about the changes may be found here

Public Consultations of the National Regulatory System for Community Housing

Final report released

The Report of the Public Consultation for the proposed National Regulatory System for community housing has been released and is now available.

The Federation is pleased to see that its key concerns have clearly been identified in the report. This sets a good basis for further developing the National Regulatory System.
