Promoting Aboriginal Employment Seminar Monday 20th May 2013

The Federation is excited to announce its second seminar of the “Improving Service Delivery to Aboriginal People Series” – Promoting Aboriginal Employment.

This seminar is an opportunity to obtain advice and guidance on how to promote and increase Aboriginal employment in mainstream community housing. Guest speakers include

- South Eastern Aboriginal Regional Management Services
- Wentworth Housing
- Aboriginal Employment Strategy
- BRC Recruitment

These Aboriginal and mainstream providers and employment organisations will provide an insight into good practice methods to increase Aboriginal employment, improve current employment strategies and maintain long term employment.

The seminar will also be an opportunity to network with Aboriginal housing providers and sector experts to gain knowledge and discuss the challenges and highlight success stories.

Do you have 3 burning questions you've always wanted to ask about Aboriginal Employment?

Well here's your chance. As part of this seminar we are providing you the opportunity to put forward 3 questions that you have always been wanting to ask but have never known who or how to ask..

It's simple - when you register provide your 3 questions by emailing adelh@communityhousing.org.au. No matter how big, small, contentious or difficult it is we want to know. We will then provide these to our guest speakers so you can get an answer from all different angles.

What will you learn?

After attending this seminar you will be able to:

- Develop strategies to overcome organisational challenges for employing Aboriginal people
- Identify new or improved strategies to develop and implement an Aboriginal Employment Strategy
- Reflect on your organisation and its management to consider if it is ready to employ Aboriginal people
- Identify other alternatives and options for employing Aboriginal people

- Identify good practice methods for employing Aboriginal people and ensuring long term employment
- Identify strategies for promoting your organisation as an employer of choice
- Learn from previous approaches that have been less successful
