NSW Community Housing Conference 2013

Save the date: March 13th – 14th 2013

The Federation is excited to announce that the NSW Community Housing Conference will be held in Sydney on March 13th – 14th 2013.

The NSW Community Housing Conference is the key industry event for community housing sector as it consistently provides relevant, stimulating and informative guest speakers, seminars and networking opportunities. The 2013 event is destined to be the Federation's greatest conference ever as it coincides with the 20th Year of the Federation!

Who should attend?

The event caters for everyone involved in community housing and we are developing a comprehensive and exciting conference program that will reflect the variety of the sector.

The NSW Community Housing Conference is the key event for community housing staff; directors; tenants; private sector partners; relevant state and local government employees; academics and students working in the housing field; peak community organisations; affordable housing stakeholders; and anyone with an interest in social, community and affordable housing.
