CADETSHIP PROGRAM 2023

Community Housing Industry Association NSW

Earn and Learn with a Cadetship

Together with the NSW Government, the Community Housing Industry Association (CHIA) NSW is providing new training opportunities connected to jobs in the Community Housing Industry through a Cadetship Program.

This exciting program provides an opportunity for cadets to undertake paid employment and training across the operational areas of application/allocation, tenancy management and property management.

With 25 cadetships offered each year from 2021 until 2024, all participants who successfully obtain a place will enter a 12-month paid employment contract with a Community Housing Provider and enrol to study the CHC42221 Certificate IV in Housing.

This nationally accredited qualification will provide foundation skills and knowledge in:

- understanding the community housing workplace,
- working with tenants and applicants to understand their needs, and
- assessing and overseeing property management.

Scheduled during work hours, training is delivered by industry and teaching experts with specialist knowledge and skills in the community housing sector. All trainers currently work in industry, hold a diploma or higher-level qualification in their relevant field, and a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment.

Both paid employment and training are for a 12-month period, with support provided in the workplace and throughout the course by dedicated Mentors, Trainers and Workplace Coordinators. Trainers will also work one-on-one with participants who require extra assistance to ensure the concepts and knowledge required are understood.

CADETSHIP OVERVIEW

Develop frontline skills in application/allocation, tenancy and property management within the workplace and through formal training for 12 months.

Learn about the community housing sector and organisations that help people find a home and stable housing.

Obtain a qualification by undertaking training in the CHC42221 Certificate IV in Housing.

Earn an income as you go.

"The cadetship has been amazing. I am so grateful for being given the opportunity to be involved."

APPLYING FOR A CADETSHIP

Eligibility & Application Submission

Determine Your Eligibility

The Cadetship Program is open to residents of NSW who are:

- Social housing tenants and clients aged 25+, or
- Unemployed and aged 21 + years, and
- Double vaccinated against COVID to participate in training and work

The Application Process

The Cadetship Program is limited to 25 places each year for four years (100 in total) to 2024. To submit your application for consideration and assessment, please follow the steps below. If you do not have access to a computer at home, head to your local library to use their resources.

Please let us know if you need support with this process.

1

OBTAIN A UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER (USI)

All students must have a valid Unique Student Identifier (USI) to enrol in the course. This government requirement is also needed to issue your qualification on completion.

- To obtain a USI: apply directly at <https://www.usi.gov.au/students/get-a-usi>.
- If you have a USI but forgotten it: visit the USI Registrar and click on the I have forgotten my USI option. Instructions will be provided for retrieving your USI.

2

COMPLETE AN ONLINE APPLICATION FORM

Complete this online Cadetship Application Form and be sure to include:

- Your USI (per Step 1)
- Brief statement outlining why you would like to undertake the cadetship
- A resume (please ask us cadetship@communityhousing.org.au if you need assistance)
- Copy of your identification (ID) e.g. Drivers Licence, Passport, Australian Birth Certificate, Medicare number.

COMPLETE THE ONLINE READING & NUMERACY ASSESSMENT

After submitting your application, it will be reviewed. Should you be successful to move to the next step, you will receive a link to complete an online Reading and Numeracy Indicator Assessment. This will assess your ability and skills for undertaking study, community participation and workplace employment requirements.

4

ATTEND AN INTERVIEW

Once your application form and Reading and Numeracy Assessment is received, they will be reviewed by a panel of trainers and Community Housing Providers. If successful, you will be invited to attend an interview to discuss the cadetship and your suitability.

ACCEPT OFFER

If successful, you will receive an offer to join the Cadetship Program and acceptance of its terms for training and employment with an allocated Community Housing Provider for a period of 12-months.

6

ATTEND INDUCTION

Your training program will commence with an expenses-paid 5-day induction in Sydney to help you get started.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

About the Cadetship Program

Cadet Selection

25 cadets will be selected each year from the total pool of applicants according to the application process and eligibility criteria. Any applicants who attend an interview and are unsuccessful will be provided with feedback.

Applying for Other Rounds

If you apply for this round of the cadetship but are unsuccessful, you may apply for additional rounds from the following year. We will keep you on our contact list and advise you of the next application period and associated dates.

Training and Work Requirements

Successful cadets will undertake a combination of paid work and study throughout the contracted 12-month cadetship period. Training will be a blended delivery of face-to-face and online learning, with learning materials and workplace assessments. Training will be delivered in blocks of 2-3 consecutive days throughout the 12-month program. Successful cadets will be allocated employment with their nearest participating Community Housing Provider and be required to sign an employment and training contract.

Cadet Eligibility

The Cadetship Program is open to residents of NSW who are:

- Social housing tenants and clients aged 25+, or
- Unemployed and aged 21 + years (whether connect to social housing or not), and
- Double vaccinated against COVID to participate in training and work

Rates of Pay

The rate of pay for the 12-month cadetship employment period will be discussed during the interview process and determined by the employing Community Housing Provider.

Work Hours

Weekly fulltime work hours will be determined by the employing Community Housing Provider and discussed during the interview process.

Continued Employment

Training and paid employment under this Cadetship Program is for a period of 12-months only. Employment beyond this period is not guaranteed with your allocated Community Housing Provider. As part of your training, assistance will be provided to prepare you for seeking employment.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

About the Cadetship Program

Course Progression

Study in the cadetship is tied to successfully attending work, maintaining a satisfactory work performance, attending training, and completing assessment tasks. We want to ensure all our students are on track to finish their qualifications within the 12-month employment and learning contract. If students do not complete work or attend class, we will follow-up with them and their employer. If students do not progress due to unforeseen circumstances, they will be contacted by the CHIA NSW Workplace Coordinator.

Completion of Training

Completion of training is expected within the 12-month period. However, students who have not completed the course and required training obligations during this time will be given a 3-month extension prior to graduation, upon discussion with their trainer and Workplace Coordinator.

Benefits of the Cadetship Program

Through this program cadets will:

- Develop application/allocation, tenancy and property management skills working in an office environment, visiting people at their homes, or checking their properties.
- Learn about the Community Housing Industry and organisations that help people find a home and stable housing.
- Obtain a nationally accredited qualification by undertaking the CHC42221 Certificate IV in Housing.
- Earn an income while learning.

Commitment to Meeting Cadets Learning Needs

We will support cadets learning and working journey through the cadetship with a team of specialists, including:

- a Mentor who will be available to discuss issues which may arise in the workplace,
- a Workplace Coordinator, along with the trainer will be available to assist with assessments in the workplace.

Recognising Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a process of assessment that acknowledges any previously acquired knowledge, experience, or skills to count towards the requirements for the CHC42221 Certificate IV in Housing. This may include skills obtained through training (informal or formal), work experience, or life experience. Further information will be provided during the training induction.

COURSE OVERVIEW

CHC42221 Certificate IV in Housing

About the Course

This qualification reflects the role of staff who are engaged in delivering services and support to applicants and residents of social housing. The elective units are specifically directed at learning skills and knowledge to understand clients living in community housing, the work environment, and all aspects of frontline work within a Community Housing Provider.

The CHC42221 Certificate IV in Housing is streamlined and delivered in fourteen blocks of learning. Each block will take between two to three days to complete and be delivered sequentially throughout the twelve-month cadetship.

Workers at this level may work under limited supervision in an administrative and/or assisting capacity role in delivering housing support services in the social housing sector.

COVERING ARTWORK | BUNDYI/YALBILINYA

In Wiradjuri language, this means SHARE/LEARN and was created by NATHAN PECKHAM, Yurana Creative.

This piece depicts a gathering of hunters at a yuriyaw (water hole) on the river. They have travelled a long way from different parts of the land to come together to share and learn from each other.

These birra-man (travellers) are young and old, innocent and wise but they all share the same desire to grow together. The lesson is growth through learning.
